Terms and conditions of membership

In applying to join the Institute of Refrigeration (Charitable Incorporated Organisation 1166869) I confirm my understanding of the following terms of membership:

- That the statements made by me on my application form are accurate to the best of my knowledge.
- That I will adhere to IOR membership policies on Code of Conduct, Continuous Professional Development and Use of IOR logo as published on the IOR website under “policies and practices”
- That I am responsible for advising the IOR of any changes to my contact details or personal information to ensure that the data held about me is accurate.
- I agree to pay the annual membership subscription as approved at the AGM until such time as I advise the IOR Membership Secretary that I wish to cease my membership.

I also hereby give my consent to the following:

- The IOR may hold data provided on this application form and held on this website about my membership electronically or in paper records for the purposes of keeping a register of its members.
- The IOR may contact me electronically with news, updates, technical information and invoicing information, and understand that the IOR will not release my data to third parties.
- I agree with the terms and conditions of use of this website as published on the website.

Please note that in applying for membership you have provided explicit consent for the use of your personal information by Institute of Refrigeration for marketing use related to products and services available from the IOR. You may withdraw your consent by emailing: membership@ior.org.uk at any time and you will be immediately withdrawn from all of our marketing lists. You may also update and consult information held about you by the IOR at any time.
